50 TRAIL YOUNG BANK ROBBER; GOT $191,000

FLORAL PARK, N. Y. (AP)—Fifty men have been turned loose on the trail of a slick young bank robber who yesterday made off with $191,280, possibly the biggest cash take in all U. S. bank holdups.

A special briefing was held last night for 25 FBI agents and a like number of Nassau County detectives assigned to track down the gunman who looted the Franklin National Bank branch here.

From what was made public, clues were slim.

Kidnapped Banker

The main story of the robbery came from Eric Gronwall, 44, manager of the bank in this prosperous Long Island community of 19,000. Gronwall was leaving for work from his home in nearby Bellmore when he first met the bank robber. Emerging from the shrubbery, the gunman got into Gronwall's car and explained his holdup plan.

Gronwall was forced to drive to the bank as usual. The robber, who flourished a gun under a canvas bag, was at his side.

With Gronwall as hostage, the robber looted the bank and then drove away. The banker was freed about two miles away in a residential area. His car was found abandoned later, with fingerprints carefully wiped away.

Eisenhower Shows Russians How To Feed Starving Germans; May Help To Re-Elect Chancellor

WASHINGTON (AP)—This country's free food for the East Germans—flour, lard, beans and dried milk—continues to sting the Russians like a mustard plaster. The 15 million dollars which President Eisenhower ordered spent for it no doubt pays for itself in goodwill for this country among both the free West Germans and the East Germans living under Communist control.

As an American act of friendship, it may be effective in persuading the West Germans to reject this fall Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, who has been working on the side of the United States.

And the fact that the East Germans have streamed into West Berlin for the food, at risk to themselves, is notice to everyone that there is a hunger problem in Soviet territory and that the Russians can't lick it.

After the East German workers' riots in June, Eisenhower put the Russians on the spot by asking them to let 15 million dollars' worth of American food go through the curtain to the East Germans.

Reds Were Trapped
If Moscow accepted, it would be public acknowledgment of the hunger problem. Refusal would make Communist treatment of the East Germans, which brought on the riots, look even worse. Moscow refused.

Eisenhower decided to send the food into West Germany where Adenauer's government could handle distribution of it for the East Germans, or those who dared to come for it. Many dared.

Over 2,600,000 seven-pound packages have been handed out and the program is far from finished. Distribution began in late July.

It has been estimated the 15 million will buy 50,000 tons of food. Eisenhower ordered Harold Stassen's Mutual Security Agency, since renamed the Foreign Operations Administration (FOA), to get the food.

Patronize Commercial Firms
The money comes out of a special FOA fund. FOA told the agriculture Department to act as its agent in buying the food. Then FOA set up a schedule to ship about 5,000 tons a week.

The first shipment of 4,500 tons began leaving this country in American freighters July 17. It consisted of 2,000 tons of flour, 1,000 tons of lard, 500 tons of dried milk, and 1,000 tons of beans.

Further shipments will contain the same items, with the possible addition of canned meat. The flour, lard and dried milk are being bought from commercial firms. The Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) supplies the beans.

As part of its price-support program, the government will step in and buy a farmer's beans if open

"OLD FRIENDS MEET"

When you haven't seen a someone . . . for a very long, long while . . . you are liable to forget him . . . through the years that by you file . . . and when fate brings you together . . . you're not sure you know his name . . . so you're coy when you inquire . . . so as not to show your shame . . . but you really are not guilty . . . for the years have changed his face . . . and the smile that you remembered . . . now has wrinkles in its place . . . and when you are sure you know him . . . and he's sure that he knows you . . . you will talk about your memories . . . and of the future too . . . then as you resume your journey . . . you recall how very sweet . . . were the years that fled by you . . . so it is when old friends meet.

SALES TAX CAN BE TAKEN FROM U. S. INCOME TAX

By LEONARD A. UNGER

HARRISBURG, Pa.—You will be able to claim a federal income tax deduction for the new state sales tax you pay after it goes into effect Sept. 1.

Joseph C. Snyder, newly named director of the Revenue Department's Sales Tax Bureau, made the statement today in disclosing that the U. S. Internal Revenue Bureau has recognized Pennsylvania's one per cent sales tax as a deductible item.

"The Internal Revenue Bureau, in areas where a sales tax is in effect, usually issues a list of estimates on what amount of sales taxes are paid by persons in different income brackets," he explained.

He pointed out, however, that if an income taxpayer makes too high an estimate on his returns he may be asked to produce sales tax receipts to back up his estimate.

Shoe Repair Issue

Snyder made the disclosure as the Revenue Department ran into its first snag on sales tax exemptions over the question of whether or not shoe repairs are taxable.

The status of shoe repairs was undecided despite an order to the printer for 50,000 copies of the bulky tax regulations to be distributed throughout the state.

"We're not sure about shoe repairs," said Snyder. "There are several factors involved." The regulations provide that materials are taxable when sold to repairmen for use in making repairs where such materials lose their identity as a result of such use. The question is whether half soles or heels used in making the repairs lose their identity or not.

A companion question is whether such repairs are taxable since they are made to shoes—a non-taxable item.

Open Regional Offices

Revenue Secretary Otto F. Messner told a news conference yesterday that Snyder's appointment to head the sales tax bureau is now permanent. The 36-year-old Butler resident had served as assistant corporation tax director in the department.

He also announced the appointment of James A. Doyle, 58, Philadelphia, as assistant department comptroller, to direct a sales tax regional office in Philadelphia.

Similar offices are tentatively slated, Messner said, for Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Wilkes-Barre, Williamsport, Altoona, Greensburg, Erie and Stroudsburg.

Asked what a retailer should do if in doubt about collecting the tax given by Robert C. Mackley, New Oxford.

Prizes were awarded to the following: George D. Little, Hanover, the oldest man present; Mrs. Frank Appier, Lancaster, the oldest woman present; Rita Susan Clabaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clabaugh, Hanover, the youngest child in attendance; and to Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Ellenberger and family from Cuyahoga Falls, O., for having traveled the greatest distance.

HOLD REUNION AT PARISH HALL

Approximately 100 were in attendance of the 16th annual Kindig Basehoar reunion held on Sunday afternoon at the Mt. Joy Lutheran Church parish hall, near Barlow. A basket lunch was enjoyed at noon, after which a program and business meeting took place. The meeting, in charge of President John Harmon, Hanover, opened with scripture by Mrs. Harmon and prayer by Mr. Harmon. Reports were heard from the secretary, Mrs. John H. Riley; the historian, Miss Edna Basehoar; the memorial chairman, Mrs. E. Roy Kindig; and the treasurer, Erwin A. Reber. These officers were all reelected except the president. The new president is Frank E. Basehoar, Littlestown, and the vice president is E. Roy Kindig, Union Mills. It was decided to change both the meeting place and the date of the reunion. The 1954 gathering will be held at the Christ Church grove, near Littlestown, on the fourth Sunday of July. The committee chairman for this reunion will be named by the president and notified by the secretary.

Mrs. Charles Bankert was in charge of the program and announced it as follows: Piano solo, Douglas Gitt; recitation, James Rohrbach; piano solo, Barbara Bankert; a c o r d i a n selection, Gloria Messinger; piano solo, David Slusser; recitation, David Harmon; piano solo, Susan Bankert; a skit with vocal solo and piano solo by Nancy Slusser and vocal duet by Miss Slusser and her mother, Mrs. Charles Slusser, together with songs in pantomime by Mr. and Miss Slusser, Mrs. Robert Gitt and Mrs. John H. Riley.

The presentation of awards was made by Mrs. E. Roy Kindig to Mrs. Louise Hostetter, Hanover, 86, the oldest woman present; George W. Basehoar, Littlestown, 88, oldest man present; Thomas Michael Craig, six month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Craig, Littlestown, R. D., the youngest present; Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sliffer, Littlestown, R. D., who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary in a few months, the longest married couple; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Messinger, Hanover, R. D., the most recently married couple; Mr. and Mrs. Emory Gitt, Littlestown, R. D., the largest family with fourteen present; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Coulson, Shiremanstown, coming the greatest distance, and the special award was received by Larry Harmon, Hanover.

Group games were played by the children. Ice cream was provided for all present by the clan.

on a borderline item, he said: "His safest bet is to collect the tax and then find out from the department if he did right. If the item turns out to be non-taxable, he can make a refund."

Make Some Changes

Meanwhile, the department has altered its official regulations, issued Monday, to make these changes:

Exempt prepared fruits for cooking such as used in fruit cakes. Exempt sugar-coated cereals. Spell out that smoking and chewing tobacco, as well as cigars, are taxable.

List rubbing alcohol and anesthesia products as taxable. Exempt oxygen sold by or to hospitals.

Snyder also said that non-carbonated soft drinks would be considered non-taxable although carbonated soft drinks would remain subject to the tax.

Construction of the "Underground Pentagon" in Raven Rock or "Beard Lot" mountain, near Fountainsdale, began about two years ago and was recently completed. Workmen have said that the interior structure is similar to a huge building, with corridors "that seem a mile long," off which rooms have been constructed, apparently for offices, etc.

Pays Fine And Is Given Many Prizes

OIL CITY, Pa. (AP)—An astounded Texas woman will go home with an armful of gifts—all because she parked overtime.

Finding a ticket on her auto yesterday, Mrs. Alden Gannett of Dallas promptly drove to the police station here and paid the $10 fine. Mayor William Morch then gave her:

A quart of oil, a registered key ring case, an ash tray, a rose corsage, a bottle of perfume, a metal shoe rack, an electric hand lantern, a five-pound box of candy, three pairs of nylons, a set of crystal glassware, an aluminum tray and a book.

The oil, key case and ash tray are given to all out-of-state motorists who pay traffic fines voluntarily. Mrs. Gannett got the rest because she was the 1,000th motorist to do so.

JUDGE REFUSES

cording to an Associated Press dispatch from Lewisburg.

Holt, who says he is a bishop of the Philosophical College of Occult Science at Baltimore, purchased 280 acres of land in Hamiltonban and Liberty Twp., on the Raven Rock Mountain, October 31, 1946, from Mr. and Mrs. Jacob E. Seifer. He has since stated he bought the land as "an investment." The deed listed in the Adams County Register and Recorder's office gives the price as $1 but the stamps affixed to the deed signify that the price was about $1,500, or a little over $5 per acre.

Holt's land was taken by the government by a "Declaration of Taking" handed down in Middle District Court and filed with the Adams County Register and Recorder on January 23, 1952.

Two Sums Mentioned

That declaration, in connection with the Middle District Court case of the "United States of America Versus 1,100 Acres of Land" in Hamiltonban and Liberty Twp., made the government the official owner of the 280-acre tract owned by Rev. and Mrs. Holt, listed as "A-109" in the decree, 8.89 acres listed as "A-104" owned by Eleanor M. Linebaugh and 105 acres, listed as "A-114" owned by Charles S. Martin.

The declaration of taking stated that $3,425 had been placed with the Middle District Court as a "fair price" for the land.

However, the Associated Press stories from Lewisburg list the amount offered by the government to Holt as $28,000 and Holt's attorney, William Slinsky, Baltimore, has also stated the price offered as $28,000.

Construction of the "Underground Pentagon" in Raven Rock or "Beard Lot" mountain, near Fountainsdale, began about two years ago and was recently completed. Workmen have said that the interior structure is similar to a huge building, with corridors "that seem a mile long," off which rooms have been constructed, apparently for offices, etc.

The outline for future meetings was announced, together with plans for the meetings during the coming month, including social activities and study groups. There was a discussion period on the theme "Praying In The Home," and the phases of the topic discussed were kinds and reasons for prayer, and things that make people want to pray. The group was divided into sections and each given a particular study to follow. The program as outlined in the Sunday School booklet subscribed to by the congregation for the teen-agers is being followed, with the result that the section of children age ten and up began their first project. They will work on this project for the remainder of this month, with Mrs. Robert Crist supervising, and upon completion, the project will be displayed in the Sunday School room of the church. While the older children worked, the younger ones enjoyed a story period, with Bible picture study, with Mrs. Albert H. Miller Jr. in charge.

A game session followed the work and study period, and contests were won by Lester Barnes and Connie Gillespie. At the close of the session Ruth Myers and Barbe Miller gave a description of their stay at the Methodist

CHAMPIONS

The champion is the one who wins
O'er rivals all,
Reaches the topmost rung and grins...
Later to fall.

Time has a way of dimming sight
And lessening skill.
All champions lose the final fight,
And always will.

Into the record books they go,
And then appear
The test that lesser mortals know
Throughout the years.

Have they the courage grief to bear,
To take and give,
And meeting all life brings of care
As champions live?

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

A MEETING OF MINDS

Never do I go into my library without the feeling that I enter a room of silent minds. Many have said their say and left to posterity the best that was in them, represented by a poem, an essay, a great novel, a bit of history of scientific discovery, but from each there is a sample of themselves. These are the undying parts of everything between the covers of a book.

In so many of these books I find a meeting of my mind with that of the author. A carefully selected library affords any of us a room of rich treasures. It's as through each book brought to life again the one who wrote it. How often I have thought that I would so greatly like to have met the writer of a book, and to have spent an entire evening of contact with him — but the book alone has to fill the bill.

Books that live, and keep enlarging their influence, never die, nor does the author. It often takes years, however, for just appreciation to come about as a reward, unfortunately, sometimes too late for the author to know about it. I read hundreds of reviews of books, but not all are kind to the author. Many a great book is passed by reviewers as unimportant that later proves its greatness by finally coming into the light.

To my notion, one of the greatest books written in the last fifty years, was that one by Arnold Bennett, "Old Wife's Tales." But it took a long time for the public to discover the fact. There were so few first editions sold that to find one these days is a real discovery. It is a story that you return to again and again. Many years ago R. H. (Bob) Davis and Bennett were lunching in New York, and one mentioned that Samuel Butler's book, "The Way of All Flesh" was one of the great books of the century, whereupon each stood up and shook hands! What a meeting of minds!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Love That Job" Protected, 1953, George Matthews Adams Service

Frank Noel Says Reds Tried To Force Him To Send Letters Lauding Communism To Papers

Editor's Note—This is the last story by AP photographer Frank Noel on his 33 months as a Communist prisoner in North Korea.

By FRANK NOEL

as told to Olen Clements
TOKYO (AP)—After I received my camera in January 1952, the Chinese let me take pictures in four of the six camps where non-Korean war prisoners were held.

In my wandering around the camps I got a pretty fair idea of how many men were in each and I estimated there were between 4,000 and 5,000 men, mostly Americans, in the hands of the Reds. Another 3,000 died in the camps and are buried in the hills around Pyoktong and Chonchong, where most of the camps were located. That would account for up to 8,000 of the 13,000 non-Korean troops estimated to be missing today.

The Chinese did not mark these camps for aerial identification during the first year of the war. When they did mark them they used the Chinese characters that I was told meant "peace" rather than a prisoner camp.

Tried To Cover Deaths

One day about three months ago I saw three wagon loads of TNT—about 60 boxes of it to the wagon—dug up and taken out of Camp 5 where 1,200 Americans, British, Filipinos, Puerto Ricans, Turks, French and Greek POWs were held. If a bomb had struck that camp accidentally the whole bunch would have been killed.

The Reds tried to cover up the great number of deaths among the POWs—sometimes as many as 48 bodies in one day were seen being moved out of the camp—by trying to force Allied doctors to say the men died of syphilis contracted before they were captured. None of the doctors would go for it and a good many of them did time in the hole as a result.

The Communists tried every way in the world to indoctrinate the prisoners. They succeeded in some cases but I would say the percentage was very small.

Insisted He Was Officer

They used race against race and nationality against nationality in an effort to stir up animosity among the prisoners. On that score I was real proud to note 99 per cent of our men, regardless of race or creed, stood pat. They knew what was going on and didn't buy it.

Later on the Reds opened up Camp 2 and moved all the officers up there. They insisted that I was a Marine captain and moved me there with the officers despite my protests that I was a civilian war correspondent.

Forged Newsman's Names

In trying to make me admit I was a Marine captain they made me stand at attention for hours at a time out in the raw cold. Other times they made me stand with my nose pressed against a bright light for hours on end in an effort to break me down or force me to write something favorable to them. I guess that is what is wrong with my eyes now.

Once, while they had me in the hole, they tried to force me to write letters down to my correspondent friends at Panmunjom, Munsan and Seoul telling them they were being misled by the United Nations propaganda. They also asked me to write to the New York Times, Chicago Tribune, Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, Baltimore Sun, Kansas City Star and the Los Angeles Times, and tell them, "the people's peace movement" was right and just. I refused. They even forged some of our names to letters and published them. I know of several such cases.

U. S. HAS VOICE IN OPERATIONS FROM FORMOSA

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is supplying substantial modern military equipment to Chinese Nationalist forces on Formosa but has reserved for itself a powerful voice over any possible major operations by them against Red China.

Officials who reported this said the American government is especially concerned about the possibility of attacks on the Communist mainland which could be expected to provoke Red retaliation and thereby involve the U. S. 7th Fleet.

Assures U. S. Voice

Information available here indicated that an agreement with the government of Chiang Kai-shek to assure the United States a voice in major strategic decisions did not affect the kind of harassing operations which Chiang's forces have long been carrying on against Communist units on islands near the mainland.

Under some conditions, it was clear that the U. S. right to share in decisions on operations could give this country a virtual veto. Such a veto presumably would be exercised on projected Nationalist military operations which would involve American forces in a manner or to a degree inconsistent with American interests.

Officials declined, however, to say that it was in fact a right of veto which was provided in the agreement.

Step Up Aid

The arrangement apparently grows out of President Eisenhower's action last February in revoking an order to the 7th Fleet to prevent Chinese Nationalist attacks on the mainland.

Subsequently, officials said last night, the United States stepped up its program of military aid to the Nationalists on Formosa. From the point of view of putting the Communists on the defensive and possibly causing them to tie up forces in the area opposite Formosa, this fitted in with American plans.

Horrible U.N. "Atrocity"

PANMUNJOM (AP)—A top Red Cross official from a neutral nation today described Communist prisoner atrocity charges as "ridiculous statements by silly boys." He gave this example by one Chinese POW:

"He talked impassionately for an hour and it added up to the fact that he had been forced to take a bath.
"Then they cut his hair — and with scissors."

Issue Warning On Men Selling Tweeds

The Better Business Committee of the Frederick Chamber of Commerce has warned county residents to beware peddlers selling English tweed material in this area at bargain prices.

The warning does not imply that the sales are not bona fide but stresses that the salesmen are unknown and claims that they are peddling merchandise from stocks of a firm now out of business and that purchasers should be most cautious in laying out money. Since there is no licensing for peddlers outside city areas, the buyer is liable for his own losses under the law of "let the buyer beware."

This is the second case in two weeks of wandering salesmen offering imported cloth at half price. Last week, salesmen offering "imported Irish lace" left the area after an investigation by the Chamber of Commerce group.

The tweed salesmen were reported to be two men travelling in an expensive, light blue automobile.

Senators Fight Back From Short End Of 8-1 Score To Beat Yanks; Chicago Wins 2

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sports Writer

If winning a game already given up for lost was the spark that ignited the New York Yankees' pennant drive, will losing a game that looked like a sure victory be enough to put out the fire?

It's tough to pick one game as the starting point of a surge toward the flag. But you can make a pretty good case for the Yankees' July 25 encounter in Detroit.

That was the day the Yanks fought back from a 10-1 deficit to win 15-11 with four runs in the 12th inning.

White Sox Win Pair

They went on to capture 17 of their next 23 games, doubling their first-place margin over Chicago from 4½ to 9 lengths.

Then came last night. The White Sox took a couple of squeakers from the St. Louis Browns 3-2 and 3-1. The Yankees, using rookie Bill Miller, toyed with Washington and led 8-1 after six innings.

Clyde Vollmer and Mickey Vernon homered in the eighth and when Ed Fitz Gerald opened the Washington ninth with a single, Casey Stengel figured it was time to bring on Allie Reynolds. Then he settled back to watch the Big Chief polish off the Senators.

Reynolds, Gorman, Sain

Before Case could get back to the top step of the dugout Reynolds had given up four tallies and the tying run was on third base. Stengel frantically waved in Tom Gorman, who gave up a walk and a single to Vollmer that tied the score.

Then Stengel switched to Johnny Sain. Jim Busby greeted him with a triple good for two more runs. Sain eventually retired the side but the damage totaled seven runs. The final score was 10-8 Washington.

It was the biggest ninth inning of the year against the world champions and the first time they've blown a game in which they led by seven runs.

Six Scores Close

The night's activity brought the White Sox within 7½ games of the lead. Chicago has 36 games to play, five of them against New York. The Yankees have 37.

It was a night of close games with six of the nine major league contests decided by a single run. In other American League action, Boston defeated Philadelphia 3-2 and Detroit edged Cleveland 3-1. In the National, Brooklyn outlasted New York 4-3 in 13 innings, Philadelphia nipped Pittsburgh 1-0, St. Louis thumped Chicago 5-1 and Milwaukee ran up the biggest margin of the evening in whipping Cincinnati 8-2.

11-Game Streak

The Dodger triumph extended their winning streak to 11 games, longest of the year in the National League. It featured brilliant relief pitching by both clubs with Jim Hughes and Clem Labine holding the Giants hitless over the last eight innings. Larry Jansen struck out 11 men in eight innings of relief for the Giants. The loser was Jim Hearn, who took over in the 12th when Jansen developed a blister. A double, a punt and an intentional walk loaded the bases in the 13th. Roy Campanella struck out but Gil Hodges poled a fly ball deep enough into right field to allow the winning run to score after the catch.

Robin Roberts, the majors' only 20 game winner, came on in relief to save Steve Ridzik's shutout over Pittsburgh after Ridzik twisted his ankle in the seventh inning.

Eddie Mathews hit his 38th home run in Milwaukee's triumph that left the Braves 8½ games behind the Dodgers.

12 Strikeouts

Gerry Staley gave up a home run to Chicago's Eddie Meksis and five other harmless hits in joining Harvey Haddix as a 15-game winner for the Cardinals.

In the White Sox' first victory over the Browns Virgil Trucks struck out 12 men, high for the season in the American League for a nine-inning game. Bob Boyd hit a two-run homer. Sandy Consuegra and Harry Dorish edged Satch Paige and young Bob Turley in the nightcap.

Steve Gromek, a pitcher Cleveland couldn't use, beat the Indians for Detroit on six hits and he drove in the winning run.

At Boston Maury McDermott posted his 13th victory at the expense of Harry Byrd and the Athletics.

HOUND PLACES THIRD

South Mountain Jody, owned by Bruce Gallagher, Cashtown, placed third in the 13-inch class Sunday when the regular monthly beagle hound field trials were held at the Chambersburg Rod and Gun Club.

MANY SEEKING PENN GRID POST

PHILADELPHIA (P) — There's a long list of applicants for the post of head football coach at the University of Pennsylvania.

Athletic Director Jerry Ford says interviews to fill the job created by the resignation of George Munger, effective after next season, will be numerous and extend over an indefinite period of time.

Bob Odell, All-America quarterback for the Red and Blue team in 1943, had the first interview yesterday, and Ford acknowledged that preference in the coach-hunting procedure will be given to Penn graduates and those actively associated with athletics at Penn.

Odell is assistant to Coach Ivy Williamson of the University of Wisconsin. He starred for three years at Penn and later was backfield coach at Yale under his brother, Howie. Odell also worked for a year as assistant to Ray Morrison at Temple University.

Odell is "one of many applicants for the head coaching post," Ford said.

Elmira Beaten In Double Header

By The Associated Press
The Albany Senators have slammed the door to the Eastern League's first division on the fingers of the Elmira Pioneers.

The fourth-place Senators won a doubleheader from the invading Pioneers last night, 5-3 and 5-2, to put Elmira 6½ games out of fourth. Monday night Elmira edged Albany, 3-2, to become a threat to the bottom playoff berth.

In other games last night, the visiting Reading Indians victimized the last-place Scranton Miners, 3-1 and 8-5. Schenectady's Blue Jays tripped the Binghamton Triplets 4-1, 4-1 and 12-4, and the Williamsport Athletics battered Wilkes-Barre's Barons at home, 14-7.

DELAWARE HAS VETERAN SQUAD

Newark, Del., Aug. 19 — Head coach David M. Nelson announced today that invitations to attend the opening football practice sessions had been sent to 48 candidates for the 1953 University of Delaware team. Twenty-one of these men have been previous varsity letter-winners and most of the others were freshman awards with last year's winning squad.

Prospective team members will report on Monday, August 31, at which time program photographs will be taken, equipment issued, and rooms assigned. Practices will begin on the following day with drills scheduled from 9:00 to 11:45 in the mornings and from 3:00 to 5:30 in the afternoons. Part of this time will be devoted to lectures by the coaches on individual techniques and team play.

Nelson stated that the main problem confronting this year's squad is that of adjusting to one-rotation play. In this respect the Blue Hens are no different from their opponents. They should have a distinct advantage, however, from the large number of veteran players returning to form a solid foundation for the '53 team.

Delaware will be host to the Gettysburg College Blue Hen Sept. 26 in the first game to be played in the new Blue Hen stadium at Newark.

Body Blow Kills Vet In Miami Ring Battle

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — A Marine staff sergeant who survived three Korean battles, 24-year-old Robert L. Lee, died last night almost immediately after receiving a body blow in the first round of a preliminary fight at the Miami Beach Auditorium.

Fighting under the name of Bob Lee of Leonard of Milwaukee, the war veteran was favored over his opponent, Kenny Yates of Miami, in their four - round middleweight bout, and ringers were startled when he crumpled under what appeared to be only a light blow to the heart.

Lee fell back against the ropes and seemed for a moment to be gagging on his mouthpiece. Then he fell through the ropes to the ring apron and went into convulsions. He was carried hurriedly to a dressing room and pronounced dead.

Clothing, Food Are Declared Non-Taxable Under New Bill; Candy And Gum Not Exempt

HARRISBURG, Pa.—A bulky collection of regulations adopted by the State Revenue Department made it clear today that Mr. Average Consumer will need a program to know when he's supposed to pay Pennsylvania's new one per cent retail sales tax.

The detailed master list drawn up to guide collection of the new levy, effective two weeks from today, rules on hundreds of borderline cases.

Ice cream, tea and coffee are specifically included as food for human consumption and therefore not taxable. And hats, uniforms and shoes are recognized as clothing and therefore also exempt.

The new law providing for the tax designates clothing and food in general as non-taxable items just as are all sales of under 11 cents.

On Monday the Revenue Department, charged with collection of the tax, completed weeks of work on "a first official draft" of the regulations but noted, "we are fully aware that... new situations will arise when no doubt other regulations will have to be issued."

60 Page Booklet

Otto F. Messner, revenue secretary, said the 60 pages of regulations will be printed in booklet form within 10 days and mailed to trade associations, inheritance tax offices and tax information services. The rules are the result of 10 days of conferences with retail, manufacturing and farm groups.

A tentative decision had listed ice cream and sherberts as taxable but the ruling was later reversed.

The department carefully stated that "every sale at retail is taxable unless expressly exempted by these regulations or the law."

This clause gave the impression that if the retailer is in doubt he should collect the tax.

Buyers placing a down payment on taxable items before the effective date of the new levy will avoid extra payment in most cases.

Budget Plan Exempt

A layaway or budget plan transaction made before Sept. 1 is not subject to the tax provided there has been an "appropriation" of the goods by the seller. The one exception is on items contracted for which are "in an incomplete state" as of Sept. 1.

Among food items in the taxable column are: Animal foods, candy,

Wierman's Mill

Wierman's Mill—Mrs. Daniel Flory and Mrs. John Creager, Thurmout, visited Mr. and Mrs. Brinton Wastler last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Huber, Harrisburg, son-in-law and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Kieffer, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Dotter, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gettys, Good Hope Mills, Mrs. Naomi Everhart and brother, Milton Gettys, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gettys, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Aldinger have taken over management of the Wishard Fruit Market.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Morehead, Lemoyne, and Mrs. Elsie Trout and daughter, Hilda, Harrisburg, visited Mr. and Mrs. George B. Lay, Sunday.

Miss Ruth Neff is attending the sesquicentennial celebration in Chambersburg this week.

Miss Beatrice Ruppert and J. R. Ruppert, Carlisle, Mrs. Oliver Lenhart and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spahr, York, were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Hillary R. Kennedy.

chewing gum, chocolate (except for cooking), candy or chocolate coated nuts (but not salted nuts) soda water, soft drinks and mineral water.

Borderline items outside the tax include: Frozen fruits and vegetables, fruit juice when combined with water to make fruitade, malted milk and other dried milk products, vinegar and chocolate drink powders.

Tax Total Sale

The regulations stipulate that the tax should be computed and collected on the basis of the total sale without regard to the value or price of separate items making up the total amount of a single sales transaction.

Discounts including ones for employees may be deducted from the total for tax computation. However, discounts dependent on future events and not allowed at the time of sale—such as allowed for prompt payment of bills—do not reduce the total selling price.

Taxable items under the clothing classification include: Aprons, bathing caps, combs, garters, hair fittings and ornaments, hair nets, handkerchiefs, neckties, pocket-books, purses and wallets, dress shields and zippers.

Tax Sport Shoes

Seven kinds of shoes—dress, play, school, slippers, tennis, rubbers, and work shoes—are tax-exempt but any shoe made for a particular sport and not normally worn otherwise are subject to the levy. Taxable are golf, football, baseball and track shoes, ski boots, roller skates and ice skates.

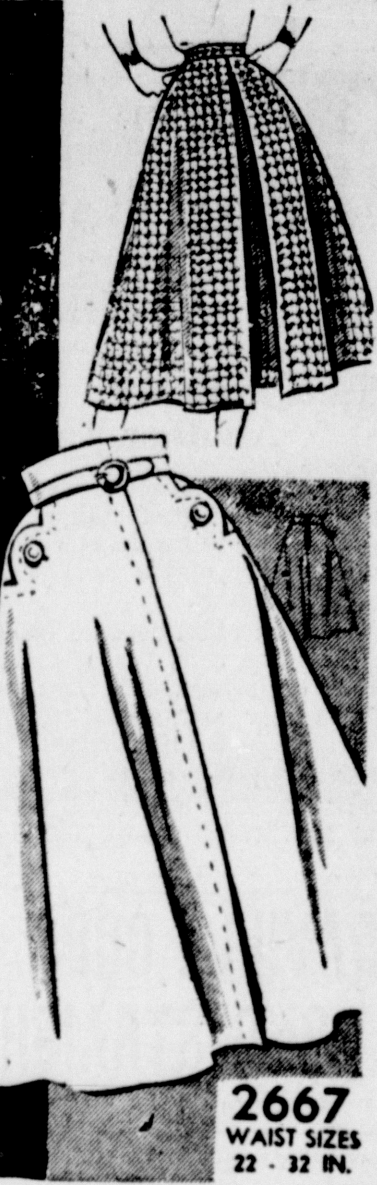

Sporting equipment not normally worn except for the activity for which it is designed also is in the taxable column. This class includes baseball, football, track uniforms, baseball and hockey gloves and other sporting accessories.

Anyone buying equipment for rental to others must pay the tax. Sales by charitable, religious or educational organizations at bazaars, fairs, or picnics are considered non-taxable under a rule dealing with casual or isolated sales.

Utility Bills Exempt

Telephone, water and electric bills for your home are exempt from the new tax since the state already taxes these items in one way or another. However, gas meter readings of Sept. 15 or thereafter are subject to the tax. The department found that delivery charges from the seller's place of business are not part of the sales price if such charges are segregated and when the seller customarily makes a separate service charge for delivery. When no separate charge normally is made for delivery or installation the tax must be paid on the total sales price.

EXEMPT PAPERS FROM SALES TAX

HARRISBURG, Pa.—The State Revenue Department today laid down four conditions for exempting sale of newspapers and periodicals from Pennsylvania's one per cent sales tax.

In order to constitute a newspaper or periodical the publication must contain at least the following elements:

1. It must be published at intervals not exceeding three months.
2. It must not, when its successive issues are put together, constitute a book.
3. It must be intended for circulation among the general public.
4. It must contain matters of general interest and reports of current events.

Can't Sell Clippings

"Notwithstanding the fact that the publication may be devoted primarily to matters of specialized interests, such as legal, mercantile, political, religious or sporting matters, nevertheless, if, in addition to the special interests it serves, the alleged newspaper contains general news of the day, information on current events, and news of importance and of current interest to the general public, it is entitled to be classified as a newspaper."

"The exemption granted by the act to newspapers and periodicals shall not be construed to include an exemption for the sale of newspaper clippings, press clipping or copies of photographs."

Strike Disrupts Broadcasts At WOR

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Engineering personnel of radio station WOR, New York key station of the Mutual Broadcasting System, went on strike Tuesday, causing a derangement of normal program operations.

Broadcasting activities were transferred from studios in the city to improvised facilities at the transmitter in Carteret, N. J., 10 miles away, where supervisory personnel manned technical equipment.

Charles A. Calame, business manager of the AFL Radio and Television Broadcast Engineers Union Local 1212, issued a statement announcing the strike "after months of fruitless negotiations" for a new contract to replace one which expired last March 23.

WATERTOWN, N. Y.—A three car collision near here on Monday killed Dr. Herbert William Taylor, physician in charge at Haverford (Pa.) College, and William C. Babcock, 61, of Kingston, Ont.

DARING GUNMEN GRAB CASHIER AND ROB BANK

FLORAL PARK, N. Y.—Daring gunmen grabbed an assistant cashier on the lawn of his home Tuesday morning, forced him to open his bank's vault and escaped with $160,000.

They took the cashier with them, but dumped him out a few miles away.

Eric Gronewall, 44, told police that as he was leaving his Bellemore home to go to a branch of the Franklin National Bank, a man stepped out of the bushes.

Ex-bank Employee

He had a gun, and a canvas bag. Jamming the gun into Gronewall's side, he warned him not to cry out, adding, "We know all about you and the bank."

They got into Gronewall's car and drove to the bank. Gronewall became aware another car was following, but the gunman said sternly, "Don't you dare turn around."

The gunman, about 30, dark haired and medium height, chatted as they drove along, said he had been in the Army and before that had worked in a bank, but didn't say where.

Forced To Open Vault

He had planned while he was in the army to rob another bank, he said, but when he got out found it had closed.

Arriving at the Franklin branch in Floral Park, a prosperous Long Island community, the gunman marched Gronewall into the bank, forced him to open the vault and after taking the money, marched him back to his car again.

They drove to Bellerose, Queens. Gronewall was told to get out. He never got a good look at the man in the other car, he said. His own car was found a short distance away after he notified police of the holdup.

Police put out an alarm for a 1947 Ford, license number NC 9369 with two men in it who were armed.

Suspects In Iranian Plot Are Being Sought In Tehran

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's triumphant government continued a roundup today of suspects in Sunday's attempted coup.

From a hill, hideout the fugitive Shah's appointee as premier, Maj. Gen. Fazollah Zahedi, defiantly called on Army officers to lay down their lives for the monarchy. His declaration was handed newsmen in Tehran by a courier.

Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi and Empress Sohyah, meanwhile, left Iraq by plane today for Europe. It was not known whether they would stop in Rome or go on to London. Earlier, in Baghdad, the Shah was quoted as telling Iraqi parliament leaders he hoped to return to his throne and that Mossadegh had violated the law.

Reserves Royal Suite
The Excelsior Hotel in Rome disclosed that it had reserved its royal suite for the Shah on his instructions, indicating he intended to remain in Rome at least temporarily.

Unofficial reports said police and pro-Mossadegh troops had arrested 30 alleged ringleaders of the palace attempt to oust the aged Premier. Foreign Minister Hussein Fatemi admitted 14 were Army leaders.

Mossadegh's government appeared firmly in power after the abortive coup launched after the Shah signed a decree to depose the Premier.

The monarch named Zahedi to the post but pro-Mossadegh forces routed a display of force by the imperial guard. The 34-year-old Shah fled by plane to neighboring Iraq.

The government ordered a special frontier watch to prevent Zahedi from slipping across to join the Shah in Baghdad. There was speculation the monarch may plan to set up a government in exile.

Boy Hit By Train, Dies In Ambulance

MILTON, Pa. (AP) — James Burns, 9, died in the Milton ambulance while being rushed to Geisinger Memorial Hospital after being struck by the understructure of a locomotive.

Dr. John Bolch, deputy Northumberland County coroner, said the accident occurred Monday while the boy was walking along Pennsylvania Railroad tracks near a street crossing. Burns apparently failed to see the protruding part of the engine and was struck but not run over.

ROME (AP) — The Shah and Queen of Iran's totering peacock throne flew here from Baghdad Tuesday, joining Italy's growing colony of exiled royalty.

with which they are charged," he declared. "We have no intention of permitting them to engage in such activities."

In Seoul, ROK President Syngman Rhee urged South Korean repatriates to "join us all when we drive north in later days."

"I ask you," Rhee declared in a statement, "to be determined to rescue your fellow men daily suffering in North Korea by advancing with faith and loyalty."

130 Sick, Wounded
The largest group of Allied soldiers yet turned back in one day—456—rode into Panmunjom today in open trucks.

And 130 Americans liberated earlier anxiously awaited the journey home aboard the hospital ship Haven, scheduled to leave Inchon harbor for Japan Thursday. Only sick and wounded are aboard.

Another 400 able-bodied American repatriates start the voyage home Saturday. They will make the two-week trip from Inchon to San Francisco on the troopship Marine Adder.

The Communists said 450 Allied prisoners would be repatriated from North Korea Thursday.

The group will include 60 Americans, 90 British and 300 South Koreans.

Typhoon Delays Release

In addition to the 75 Americans freed Wednesday, the Communists returned 75 British and 306 South Koreans, raising the total in 15 days to 4,083 of the 12,763 Allied soldiers the Reds said they held.

Moving back to life under Communist rule were 602 shouting flag-waving North Koreans, the small group of Reds yet delivered by the U.N. Command.

Transfer of Reds from prison camps off South Korea to the mainland has been hampered by typhoon weather and the U.N. Command said it would be unable to return more prisoners until Saturday, when it will hand over the usual 2,400.
